

Beyond the Treatment

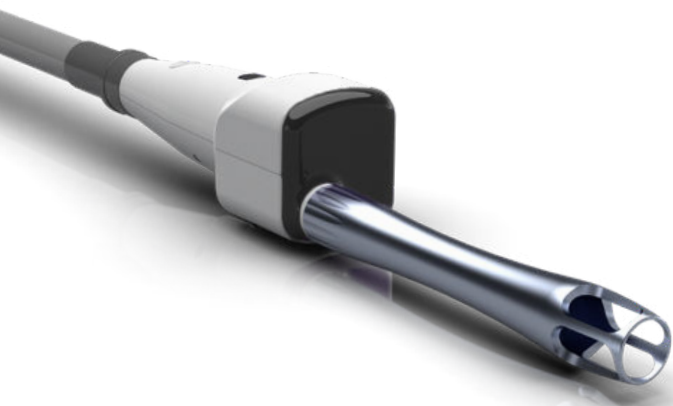

Building Consumer Awareness Around UltraClear®

UltraClear® was recently featured in an article by TipRanks highlighting Acclaro Medical's consumer-focused campaign centered around its 2910 nm cold fiber laser technology. The article emphasized UltraClear's positioning as a premium skin rejuvenation solution designed to improve skin texture, radiance, and overall "Total Skin Health™" with minimal downtime.

It also spotlighted Acclaro's continued efforts to build consumer awareness and strengthen brand recognition around next-generation fiber laser resurfacing technology.
